

Europe

1. Europe comes second as the continent with the smallest size, yet it ranks third as the continent with one of the largest populations.
2. 200 languages are spoken in Europe, The three major language spoken by Europeans are English, French and German.
3. The Czech republic has the highest number of castles.
4. Europe is home to the smallest town in the world, The little town of Hum is located in Croatia.
5. There is a town in Wales whose name has 57 letters, have fun trying to pronounce it; "Llanfairpwll-gwyngyllgogerychwyrndrob-wlllantysiliogogoch". It means "cave".
6. There are also towns in Europe with just one letter, one of them is named "Å", meaning "small brook or river" in Scandinavian languages while another is "Ö" meaning "island" in Swedish.
7. There are no mosquitoes in Iceland .... good news if you don't like mosquitos.
8. The largest country in Europe is Russia, it's capital; Moscow is the second largest city in the continent; Istanbul in Turkey is the first!
9. The smallest country, the Vatican city is located in Europe.
10. The city of Paris in France is the number one tourist destination in the world.

