

Message in a Bottle

My hands shook as I held the letter. Tears rolled down my cheek. I felt sad and alone. My sister was gone, and only this message in a bottle was left. I opened the bottle. The letter in the bottle had a message that read: "I am alive. Follow the signs. Find me."

What did it mean? At that moment, the wind died, and the waves fell silent. It was as if the ocean was talking to me. A path in the sand led me off the beach and into the forest.

A wave of emotions came over me as I made my way forward. "Is she really alive," I said to myself.

The accident happened 9 months ago. She was the best thing in my life and was taken suddenly, leaving me sad and alone. But now there was a chance to see her again.

The trees in the forest stood tall. There was no path but somehow my feet knew the way. The wind guided me in the right direction.

I came to the edge of the forest and my heart skipped a beat. There she was, sitting in a pool of mud. "You're alive," I whispered.
