

Taken

Lily was special. She had the power of invisibility. Lily's life was peaceful until one day, she was taken by the army. They wanted to use her powers. Lily's father, Mr. Johnson, was angry and ran off to save her.

Lily was trapped in a cold, dark cage. But she stayed strong. Lily knew her dad would come to save her.

Mr. Johnson finally reached Lily's cell. She was so happy. It was time to escape. But their escape was not without danger. Many soldiers tried to stop them. Lily used her powers to escape, she went invisible.

However, her father was caught by the army and lost his life. With his dying breath, he told Lily to keep running, to never give up hope. With tears in her eyes, Lily ran to freedom, never to be seen again...
